Questions 31-32

第一回

Dear Mom and Dad,

Wish you were here! You'd wish you were too. The weather is perfect, and I've even been swimming in the sea with Auntie Carol and Toby. They've been showing me how to work the barbecue, too. It's my turn to cook for them on Friday night. We might have to make a trip to Burger King, after all! Uncle James has been busy with work but he should be home Friday afternoon. Can't wait to see him again. See you in a month. Miss you both.

Love Joe

31 What is Joe's postcard mainly about?

- A. Cooking
- B. Fast-food restaurants
- C. Seeing Uncle James again
- D. His vacation

32 Who is Toby most likely to be?

- A. A dog
- B. James' son
- C. Carol's mother
- D. Joe's brother

Questions 33-35

Animals have always been a big part of my life. I grew up on a farm in England, and was riding horses by the time I was four years old. Horses and dogs were almost as much a part of my childhood as breathing. When I went to college, I found it a bit strange; the only animal was my landlady's cat. And now I'm working in the city, the only animals I see are stray dogs. In fact, I've become very fond of one of them. Next time I see him, I plan to take him home with me and keep him. The only problem is, as soon as I have one dog, I know I'll want more. Before you know it, I'll be living in a small apartment with five dogs. That would just be too much at the moment. Maybe later!

- 33 What is the best title for this story?
- "Life on a Farm"
 - "Cats and Dogs are Great"
 - "Going Away to College"
 - "I Love Animals"
- 34 Which kind of animal does the narrator like best?
- The narrator of the story likes cats more than dogs.
 - The narrator likes all animals except for stray dogs.
 - The narrator likes horses the most.
 - The narrator did not say.
- 35 What will probably happen to one of the stray dogs?
- It will be killed.
 - The narrator of the story will eat it.
 - The narrator of the story may look after it.
 - The dog will be taken horseback riding.
